RE: In re Blueline Tactical and Police Supply, LLC
Chapter 11 - Case No. 22-22186

Dear Judge Lane:

Our office represents Creditors DP 35, LLC and 801-444, LLC (collectively, the “Movants” or “Landlords”) in the above-referenced Chapter 11 case. On June 1, 2022, the Court heard oral argument and reserved decision on Movants’ fully-briefed Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay (the “Motion”) to, inter alia, pursue an eviction proceeding pending in Greenburgh Town Court; the Motion was opposed by the Debtor and is fully briefed. At that time, Movants’ counsel advised the Court that, if the parties were unable to resolve the underlying issues, it would be necessary to appear in Greenburgh Town Court on June 16, 2022.

While the parties have been attempting to resolve the outstanding issues, no agreement has been reached. Accordingly, consistent with Your Honor’s directives, Movants respectfully request Your Honor’s decision on the Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

Peri A. Berger
